

MARCH 16th UPDATE

Good afternoon Metropolitan!

Just a brief update.

Sunday worship, 11:00 a.m. on March 22nd, will be broadcast over CJBK radio 1290. There is NOT a public gathering for worship. We will continue to make our decisions on a weekly basis. Also available to our congregation is an audio and video recording of the text and sermon. Please go to Metropolitan's website for further information.

We have been touched by the encouraging notes of thanks that many have offered. Thank-you for standing tall in a complicated time. I am so proud of our congregation!

Also, anyone who is interested is more than welcome to join our email list. I have been VERY impressed how quickly information is being relayed and passed along, throughout the congregation. On Sunday, we only had a few souls appear who had not heard that we were radio only. Thank-you for your support and care.

Talk with you soon,

Jeff
